 PANEL DISCUSSION

Faith, Freedom, and the Great War — Religious Meaning in World War I

Thursday, March 29 | 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Doors open at 6:00 p.m.

For Freedom's sake he is no longer free.... To banish war, he must a warrior be.—Joyce Kilmer, "The Peacemaker" (1918)

7:00 p.m. to
8:30 p.m. EDT

200
Massachusetts
Avenue

Boston, MA
02115

How does the call of faith intersect with the call to arms? How to fight and love one's enemies? Our panelists will address these questions and others, exploring America's involvement in World War I.

As a complement to the program, Dr. Ryan Vigil will conduct a men's choral performance of hymns from a songbook created for soldiers in the war.

Join us for an evening at The Mary Baker Eddy Library! Register to guarantee free seating at mbelibrary.org/webcast.

6:00 p.m.—Doors open
